

LAKE VESSEL LOST.

Eighteen People Go Down in Lake Michigan.

THE W. H. GILCHER WRECKED

The Ill-Fated Vessel Was Coal-Laden on a Voyage from Buffalo to Milwaukee—The Names of the Lost Persons Unknown at Present.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—J. C. Gilchrist one of the principal owners of the steamer W. H. Gilcher, which is supposed to have gone down in Lake Michigan, has given the boat up as lost. He said when seen: "I am now convinced that the reason we have not heard from the Gilcher is because there is none of the crew alive to tell the tale. There were eighteen men aboard with Captain L. Q. Weeks, of Vermillion, in command. His first mate was Captain Ed Porter, of Lorain; Sydney Jones, of Marior City, Mich., was chief engineer. There was a wheelman named King, who formerly lived in Vermillion, but has lately made his home in Chicago. The only sailor known by me was a young man named Thompson, who hailed from Vermillion. Formerly nearly the entire crew were from Vermillion, but about a month ago Captain Weeks, while in Buffalo, discharged most of his old men and shipped new sailors, whose names have never been reported to the general office."

The Gilcher was an iron boat, built by the Cleveland Ship Building company and put into service a year ago last May. She was valued at $200,000, and was insured for $180,000. She had a cargo of 30,000 tons of coal and was bound from Buffalo to Milwaukee. She was last heard from when she passed Mackinaw Friday. It is the general supposition here that she must have struck upon the South Fox reef during Friday night and had a hole knocked in her bottom.

The builders of the Gilcher claim that the wreckage now being washed ashore does not tally with any part of the work on this boat. Her owners are convinced, however, that she has gone down with all on board. She carried a large metallic life boat and enough small boats to carry about thirty men. As far as is known here there were no passengers on the Gilcher when she left Buffalo.

A CARD FROM THE PRESIDENT.

Grateful for the Kindness Shown During His Recent Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The president has requested the publication of the following card:

The expressions of sympathy with me and our family in our great sorrow from individuals, from societies, from church conventions, from public meetings, from political clubs and committees of all parties, and indeed from all our people, have been so tender and so full of respect and love for Mrs. Harrison that I reluctantly abandon the purpose of making a personal acknowledgement of each. We are grateful, very grateful for this great cup of good will and for your prayerful intercessions. May God give to each of you in every trial that grace and strength which you have asked for us.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

DRANK POISONED MILK.

A Young Girl Attempts Murder and Then Takes Her Own Life.

COLUMBIA, Pa., Nov. 3.—John R. Childs, a married man not reciprocating the attentions of young Sarah Haddon, the latter offered him a glass of milk in which she had placed strychnine at the supper table last night. Childs took two swallows, and noticing a bitter taste refused to drink it.

Miss Haddon then took the glass, and, saying she would throw the milk out, went to another room and swallowed the poison. She died soon afterwards. Childs boarded with the would-be murderer's mother. He was made ill by drinking a portion of the mixture, but recovered.

Stranger Fatally Hurt.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—John Doran, a stranger, was found unconscious and terribly bruised at the crossing of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton tracks yesterday, and was taken to the hospital. He is believed to be fatally hurt and is supposed to have fallen from an incoming train. Beyond the name nothing was found upon him by which his residence can be learned.

Halford at Home.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Mr. E. W. Halford, private secretary to the president, left Washington for Indiana yesterday. He will deliver political speeches at the following points in Indiana: Marion, on Thursday; Winamac, on Friday; Columbus, on Saturday, and Rockville, on Monday.

A Sensational Rumor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Rumors published in regard to the supreme court having arrived at a conclusion in the Chicago lake front cases in favor of the Illinois Central Railroad company, can be traced to no authentic source, and are believed to be entirely sensational guess-work.

Double Lynching.

LEBANON, Tenn., Nov. 3.—Two men named Lucas and Burgess, charged with the murder of Oak Sutherland a few days ago, were taken from the jail here last night by a masked mob and hanged to trees. Their bodies were afterward riddled with bullets.

Big Seizure of Opium.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Customs officers made a seizure yesterday of 1,640 tins of opium, valued at $16,400, on the steamer Oregon from Portland. The opium was in cases marked playing cards.

IAMS' CASE.

Fifth Day of the Hearing Before the Court.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—The fifth day of the Iams case opened with Colonel Hawkins on the witness stand and his cross-examination by Attorney Iams was continued. The questions, answers and arguments proved an interesting analysis of military law. During the examination of witness a number of rulings were made by Judge Porter touching the authority of military commanders to inflict summary punishment upon members of their command for breaches of discipline which were considered favorable to the defendants.

In re-direct examination Colonel Hawkins said the punishment inflicted on Private Iams was in accordance with military customs. Senator Robbins next submitted in evidence the enlistment papers of Private M. L. Iams.

Robert Herbert, of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, was the next witness called. Mr. Herbert recited at length and in detail the stories of the Homestead trouble as gleaned from personal observation. Herbert testified: "The day following the punishment on Iams, I had a talk with him. He was telling his story to a number of newspaper men. He spoke of the treatment he had received at the hands of Colonel Stretor. Iams said he would shoot Stretor. I told the latter what Iams had said. In speaking of General Snowden, Iams said, 'I will get even with that four-eyed — on the hill.' Once Iams said he would get even with Stretor; afterwards he said he would kill Colonel Stretor."

On cross-examination witness said he had heard Private Iams propose three cheers for the man who shot Frick. Herbert also stated that the people of Homestead were in full sympathy with the advisory board.

Sergeant Russell, of Company K, Tenth regiment, testified to having repeated Colonel Stretor's orders throughout the camp, and stated that Private Iams was not doing picket duty the Wednesday night preceding the punishment.

Sergeant Ludwig testified to being in the guard tent when Iams was disciplined. A question by Attorney Watson brought from Judge Porter the statement: "A commanding officer, in time of war, can not take life or limb, but in time of mutiny, a commander can kill a man in order to suppress that mutiny—not as a punishment."

Attorney Iams—He can do so at the time of the mutiny, not four hours afterward.

Judge Porter—At the time. Here court took noon recess.

KILLED BY A MARSHAL.

A Supposed Horse Thief Shoots an Officer and Is Himself Shot.

CELINA, O., Nov. 3.—The village of St. Henry, ten miles south of this city, and in this county, was thrown into a state of excitement early yesterday morning by the killing of a strange man. Some parties living near Bellefontaine, who had a horse stolen from them, were traveling in this direction, looking for the thief. At Minster they were informed of the route taken by the supposed thief, and the marshal, Fred Dress, and his deputy were there employed to assist in running him down.

The suspected parties traveled in a large covered wagon, and had worked as far as St. Henry, and had gone into camp on the bank of the Wabash river, just west of the village, for the night. Marshal Dress and his deputy came to this city, the other parties going toward Sidney. A trace of the wagon was found here, and located as above. While they were asleep, Marshal Dress went into the camp and awakened them, calling to the man, who gave his name as Dean McVay, and answering the description of the party wanted. He was told to consider himself under arrest. He took things very coolly, and acted as though no resistance would be made.

Dress called his deputy up, who went to one side of him, and Dress then told him that he would have to put him in irons. Still he did not say anything, and allowed him to place his left hand in the iron, but when he tried to put his right one in he jerked from him and pulled a revolver. Dress and his deputy, who were both covering him with revolvers, became alarmed, and got ready for a fight. McVay shot at the marshal, but missed him.

Then Dress fired his revolver, the bullet taking effect in McVay's head near the temple, killing him instantly. Dress, seeing what he had done, went to the justice of the peace, J. G. Beckman, and gave himself up, who bound him over to court in the sum of $3,000. McVay had a wife and three children with him, who were left penniless and without anything to eat except what was given them by the officers. McVay's body was taken charge of by the coroner, who will investigate. The woman refuses to give their abiding place.

Attempted Jail Delivery.

LIMA, O., Nov. 3.—About 2 o'clock yesterday morning Sheriff O'Neill was awakened by aid of prisoners calling to him that the prisoners were breaking jail, and he got downstairs in time to see three of them slide out through a hole sawed in the iron bars at one of the windows. They were J. M. Williams, a forger; Edward Hall, a highway robber, and Joseph Crider, who attempted to kill Dr. Wetherell at Bluffton, a few weeks ago. They were captured.

Dunkards Dosed.

PHILLIPSBURG, O., Nov. 3.—Two hundred Dunkards who were holding a meeting here, were rendered dangerously ill by eating soup into which croton oil had been maliciously poured. The meeting was disbanded.

Three Suspicious Italians.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 3.—Over $4,000 in gold and bank notes, watches and jewelry was found on three Italians arrested here yesterday on suspicion.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Lieutenant Frederick Schwatka Commits Suicide.

LAUDANUM THE DRUG USED.

He Was Celebrated for His Arctic Explorations, Having Been in Command of the Expedition Which Went in Search of Sir John Franklin.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 3.—About 5 o'clock yesterday morning Lieutenant Frederick Schwatka, the famous Arctic explorer, was picked up on First street in an unconscious condition. Beside him lay a bottle of laudanum. A patrol wagon was called and the lieutenant was removed to the police station, where he soon died. It was undoubtedly a case of suicide.

Lieutenant Schwatka had been suffering from a complication of troubles and had shown symptoms of apoplexy on numerous occasions. His stomach had of recent years given him much trouble, and for the purpose of finding relief he used small quantities of laudanum, usually from ten to twenty drops. Tuesday evening his stomach trouble came on with such severity that he complained bitterly and sought relief. He went into a drug store and asked for two ounces of laudanum.

The clerk did not recognize the lieutenant, and asked him if he had a prescription. He replied he had not, but as he was a graduate of Bellevue college he could soon write one. The clerk replied that it was not necessary, and gave him the drug and registered the transaction. He talked about his ailments, but otherwise appeared in excellent spirits.

The city physician says: "I shall hold a post mortem examination to discover the exact cause of death. It is possible he took an overdose of the drug by mistake, but I am inclined to believe that he had an apoplectic stroke. When I was sent for, I found the lieutenant unconscious. The pupils of his eyes indicated that he had taken a narcotic. I am of the opinion that had a physician been called as soon as Lieutenant Schwatka was discovered his life might have been saved."

The coroner has decided not to hold an inquest until tomorrow.

Frederick Schwatka was born at Galena, Ills., Sept. 29, 1849. In 1853 he removed to Oregon with his parents, and in 1857 he received an appointment to the United States military academy from that state. Graduating in 1871 he served in the United States cavalry on garrison and frontier duty until 1878. He also received a medical degree at Bellevue hospital college, New York, a year after he had been admitted to the bar in Nebraska.

From June, 1878, to September, 1880, he had command of the Franklin search party in the Arctic region, which accomplished the longest sledge journey on record—3,251 miles, occupying twenty-one months. The search party discovered and buried many of the skeletons of Sir John Franklin's party. Schwatka's second expedition was for the government in Alaska, along the Yukon river. His effects were carried by about seventy-five Indians across the mountains, and a raft was built on which the party floated down the river 1,305 miles, the longest recorded raft journey. By this expedition the length of the Yukon was found to be 2,045 miles, navigable for 1,866.

In 1884 Schwatka resigned the commission of first lieutenant, Third cavalry, and two years later he made an expedition for the New York Times among the Mount St. Elias Alps, the chief mountain being ascended over 7,000 feet. In 1889 he made an expedition to the northern part of Old Mexico, practically unexplored on account of the presence of the warlike Apaches. Many interesting relics of the Aztec civilization were found, and studies made of the cliff and cave dwellers, of whom Schwatka estimated there were from 8,000 to 12,000 in Chihuahua alone.

Lieutenant Schwatka received the Roquette Arctic medal from the Geographical society of Paris, and he was honorary member of several foreign societies. His books are "Along Alaska's Great River," "Nimrod in the North" and "The Children of the Cold."

ELECTRIC WIREMEN'S STRIKE.

But a Few Out Now but More Will Soon Follow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The strike of the electric wiremen's union against the combination is not assuming such large proportions as the executive committee held out it would at first. When the building trades' union offered their assistance it was said that work on about 150 buildings in this city would be suspended, and from 10,000 to 20,000 men thrown out of work.

There are now only about 225 men idle, and these are all members of the wiremen's union. It is the idea of the wiremen's union to keep on calling out the union men employed until the combination get tired of it and will once more submit to the agreement which they made last April.

Robbed to His Own Advantage.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3.—Samuel Clark, of 91 East Front street, Cincinnati, made a good bit of money by being held up by a couple of bold highwaymen in Columbus. The robbers were Daniel Ryan and Frank Nelson, both colored, who laid hands on Clark and took $1 from him, all he had. Yesterday they were found guilty of highway robbery, and Clark was paid $116 as witness and other fees.

Took Professor Sousa's Place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Professor Francisco Fanciulli was duly installed yesterday as leader of the Marine band, in place of Professor Sousa, who has gone to Chicago. Professor Fanciulli is a member of the New York Press club, by which he was highly recommended for the appointment.

SENSATIONAL MURDER.

A Sheriff Shoots a Marshal During Political Excitement.

CORYDON, Ind., Nov. 3.—The most sensational murder in southern Indiana for several years occurred here Tuesday evening. It was due to political excitement. There was a Democratic rally during the day, addressed by Claude Matthews. It is alleged that a number of colored men collected in the outskirts of the town, and annoyed the wagon-loads of Democrats who passed that point. This was resented by a band of young Democrats, and there was considerable turmoil. Gideon Smith was the town marshal. Despite their political differences, the marshal and Sheriff Claiborne Shuck were friends.

During the day Heath appointed a colored man as deputy, and when the sheriff and marshal met in a saloon, this caused some ill feeling, but it ended in the officials drinking together and expressing mutual regard one for the other. Later, however, the sheriff and marshal met near the court house, while the sheriff was homeward bound, and it is claimed that the marshal struck the sheriff with a club, knocking him upon his knees. The sheriff then used his revolver, taking careful aim and lodging a bullet in his opponent's bowels. The marshal fell dead.

A great crowd collected after the shooting, and for a time there were indications of a dangerous riot, but cooler counsel prevailed, and the sheriff was suffered to proceed to jail, where he surrendered himself to his jailer as a prisoner. The murdered man was fifty years old. He had served as town marshal for many years. He was a friend of the sheriff's, with whom his relations were quite intimate. Shuck is thirty-six years old, and noted for his courageous qualities. It is intimated that whisky had much to do with the killing.

MET A VIOLENT DEATH.

An Old Lady Fatally Burned at Her Own Fireside.

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Susan Shepherd, one hundred and three years old, the oldest resident in the county, and probably the oldest person in the state, after living more than a century, and still hale and active, met her death in a violent manner last night at the home of her grandson at Bowling Green.

She was sitting in a room alone at the time, when in some manner her clothing caught fire from an open grate, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames. She inhaled both smoke and flame, which stifled her cries, and she was dead when found. The body was burned to a crisp before anyone knew of the accident. The old lady came to this county when it was still a wilderness, and she has since resided within its borders. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren number in the hundreds.

Attorney General Miller to Retire.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Indianapolis says: "Attorney General W. H. H. Miller will retire from the cabinet soon after the election whether Mr. Harrison is re-elected or not. He has formed a law partnership in this city, his former home, and will move back here about the first of January. The friends of the attorney general here say that official life has never been congenial to him. Furthermore he feels that his law practice here will be much more lucrative than the official position. Mrs. Miller, too, it is said, has never been content with Washington life."

New Telephone System.

LAFORTE, Ind., Nov. 3.—The new telephone system just completed in this city and known as the Strowger automatic telephone system is now in successful operation. The system differs from the old in that it does away with the "hello" girl and switchboard, the switching being performed automatically. Laporte has the honor of being the first city in which this system has been introduced. Thursday will be known here as telephone day and will be celebrated by the entertaining of a special train load of capitalists from Chicago, New York, San Francisco and Europe.

No One to His Rescue.

PORTLAND, Ind., Nov. 3.—The bunko stealer arrested Monday is still in jail unable to give the bond of $4,000. Who he is has not yet been established, although he is the image of William Gillette, an escaped forger from the Winnipeg (Man.) prison. An old man from near Anderson, who had dropped $3,600, came here at noon, but could not identify the prisoner. The old fellow would not give his name, as he said he was ashamed for people to know he had been such a fool.

Extirpating a Whole Family.

NATCHEZ, Miss., Nov. 3.—News has reached here of the hanging of the son and daughter of John Hastings, the negro who was jailed here Saturday for the murder of Zip Norment, of Calahoula parish, La. Another son was killed while resisting arrest here at the time that Hastings was captured, making three of the family who have lost their lives, although none but the father was concerned in the murder of Norment.

Married an Heiress.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 3.—Dr. J. H. McLaughlin perpetrated a huge surprise yesterday by announcing his wedding Tuesday to Miss Emma Mary Wilson, a Warren county heiress, worth $150,000. They had been engaged for a number of years and would have been married long before this but for the bride's devotion to an invalid relative now deceased.

Three Pioneers Dead.

SCOTTSBURG, Ind., Nov. 3.—Three of Scott county's oldest residents are dead: Aunt Mildred A. Mitchell, eighty-four years old, and a resident of this county nearly all her life; William Starke, eighty years old, and Wesley Rice, eighty-five. Both men were residents of this county all their lives.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Twenty Persons Killed and a Number Injured.

AN EXPRESS MEETS A FREIGHT.

The Wreck Takes Fire and Some of the Bodies Are Horribly Burned—Another English Railroad Wreck—Other Dispatches from Abroad.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—An appalling railway accident occurred early yesterday near Thirsk, in Yorkshire, by which twenty persons were killed and a large number injured. The express train which leaves Edinburgh every evening for London was running at full speed as it approached Thirsk, when ahead of it appeared a heavily-laden goods train. The engineer of the express train reversed his engine and put on the brakes, but the momentum of the heavy express was too great and it dashed into the goods train, making a most terrible wreck.

To add to the horror the carriages caught fire and were destroyed. A large number of persons from near-by places were soon at the scene and did everything possible to extricate the dead and injured. The burning cars greatly hampered their efforts, but had it not been for their bravery the loss of life would have been much greater.

The scene at the wreck was pitiable. Some of the bodies taken out of the debris had been burned beyond all semblance to humanity. The clothing had been destroyed and in some cases the jewelry worn had been melted by the intense heat. This will render the identification of the dead in some cases extremely difficult.

A wrecking train was dispatched to the scene as soon as the fact of the disaster became known. A number of physicians were carried to the wreck and they at once devoted themselves to relieving the sufferings of the injured.

Among those on board were the Marquis of Tweeddale, who escaped uninjured, and the Marquis of Huntly, a lord in waiting to Queen Victoria, who was bruised and had a thumb broken. Among the dead is Captain Duncan McLeod, of the Forty-second Highlanders. Relief trains have been dispatched to the scene of the disaster.

Another Wreck.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 3.—Many of the people who were on the Birkenhead ferry-boat last night when it collided with the ship Eurydice had hardly got over their scare on that occasion when they met with another accident that was far more serious in its results. A large number of these people boarded a train on the Mersey railway, still talking among themselves of their narrow escape from drowning. As the train was leaving the ferry station it ran into an engine and was wrecked. Three of the passengers were killed and fifty were injured. It is thought that some of the injured will die. Many of the injured passengers refused to continue their journey, fearing that a further accident might befall them.

OUR DENTISTS ABROAD.

Jealousy of Rivals Leads to the Imposition of Heavy Fines.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—Something of a sensation has been caused in American circles here by the recent decision of the courts imposing heavy fines upon several American dentists in Germany for using the title "doctor."

The American dentists in Germany, as in other countries of Europe, are superior to the native practitioners, and for the past two years have been largely patronized by the higher classes, and in view of these facts the statement has been made by members of the profession that the recent action of the courts was prompted by jealousy. The only titles of doctor recognized in the empire are "doctor of medicine," "doctor of law," "doctor of theology" and "doctor of philosophy." It is held by the court that any one practicing dentistry and using the title "doctor," although he may possess such a diploma as "doctor of law" or of "theology," implies that he is a "doctor of medicine," thus misleading the public.

Yacht Stranded.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—The yacht Princess Alice, belonging to the Prince of Monaco, stranded at the entrance to the Toulon harbor during a gale yesterday. The Prince of Monaco and his wife were on board the yacht. Quite a heavy sea was running, and it was only with great difficulty that they were rescued.

Twenty People Trampled to Death.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Vienna says that a panic occurred in the church of the village of Vinagora upon the raising of a false alarm that the tower was collapsing. In the mad struggle to get out twenty-five persons were trampled to death.

Steamer on Fire.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The British steamer Kilmore from Brunswick, via Norfolk for Liverpool, has signalled in passing Holy Head that the cargo in her hold is on fire.

Repub- licans Praise Paynter

Postmaster Davis, editor of the Public Ledger, the Republican organ of this district, was in Washington City last May, and in a letter to his paper, published May 29, said:

"Hon. Thomas H. Paynter is popular with everybody, and I can cheerfully bear testimony to his efficiency, having had frequent occasion to call upon him in behalf of the public service."

Public Ledger September 7:
 "Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, present Congressman from this district, was nominated at Carlisle yesterday for a third term. The 'trade of politics' has become so perverted that one can not do justice to an opponent without having his motives impugned; but it is only fair to say that Mr. Paynter has made a good Representative. So far as we know he has been attentive to the wishes of his constituency, and business entrusted to his care has received prompt attention."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Kentucky, fair Thursday; winds becoming north-west.

The Force bill is the most un-American measure that has ever been debated in the halls of Congress.

"REVOLUTIONARY" is a very mild term to apply to the party that is seeking the passage of such an atrocious measure as the Force bill.

The attitude of the Republican party towards the Force bill is its most vulnerable point in the present campaign, and should insure its utter discomfiture and defeat.

The Republican party by its fostering of the Force bill, and other like acts, has demonstrated that it is no longer worthy the confidence of the American people, and should no longer be entrusted with governmental management.

Says the Herald of Peoria, Ill.: "Glass blowers in LaSalle County get the same wages as glass blowers in Canada. Canadian glass blowers are protected by a duty of 30 per cent, those in LaSalle county by a duty of 60 per cent. If high tariff taxes raise wages, why don't the LaSalle glass blowers get higher wages than those in Canada?"

The Executive Committees of the two leading parties in this county have been conferring with each other with a view to a strict observance of the provisions of the new law against the use of money at the polls. A proposition to that effect has been approved by the Democrats, and it is to be hoped that it will be approved by the other side. If the evil is ever to be suppressed and driven out now is the time.

HAS ENOUGH OF IT.

Judge H. R. Littell, of Hopkinsville, Deserts the G. O. P.—Others for Cleveland

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., October 29.—Judge H. R. Littell, who has long been prominent in the councils of the Republican party in this section, announces his intention to support the national Democratic ticket. He is a gentleman of means and influence, President of the City Bank and late Republican office-holder. The attitude of the Republican party with reference to the Force bill and its opposition to all measures of tariff reform are the reasons which prompted Judge Littell to sever his relations with the G. O. P.

CYNTHIANA, KY., October 29.—J. L. Jones, a tin merchant of this place, who voted for Harrison in 1888, and has been a life-long Republican, is out for the whole Democratic ticket. He says he can not stand the McKinley tariff on tin. Major A. J. Morey, who voted for Harrison in 1888, is out day and night making speeches for Cleveland and Stevenson. He says he can not stand the Force bill and the tariff.

Clay Clement.

Clay Clement will appear at the opera house next Monday night in Irving's great piece, "The Bells." Tickets now on sale at Nelson's. His first appearance at Detroit was on October 4th, and the Free Press says: "Mr. Clement by this one performance aroused the enthusiastic admiration of the community of play-goers, who last night set the seal of their approval on his unassuming but commanding effort in a character that has been thought to belong to the idol of the English stage. The Free Press hastens to swell the acclaim with which that effort was hailed and to congratulate this modest young player upon a memorable success. The support was excellent."

Railways and the Judiciary.

T. V. Powderly has an article in the North American Review for this month in which he says: "Behind the railways and telegraphs stands the Judiciary, ready and willing to lend its awful strength to that now exercised by corporate wealth, so that the combination may strike terror to the hearts of the men who must work for bread. Vest the title to the rail and telegraph lines in the Government and we destroy the incentive to own Judges and courts. Every well regulated railroad corporation now owns its Judges and courts; one of the necessary adjuncts to the great corporation of the day is a court of its own, or a number of them. It is cheaper to buy Judges to set aside laws than it is to pay a number of legislators to make laws; besides, it is safer and attracts less attention. We make law, and it is laughed at by the trust, the syndicate and the combine; we make appeals to courts and Governors, and our appeals are laughed at and pigeon-holed, or else a mock trial is entered upon to deceive and lull the majority to the sleep of death. We elect Judges and they stand guard at the portals of monopoly."

Pelham Against the M. and E. S.

In reversing the above case taken up from this county the Court of Appeals says:

First—In trespass quare clausum freight against a railroad company in which the defense was that the defendant was entitled to enter by virtue of a proceeding to condemn the land which was bad by its remote vendor more than forty years ago, the only two issues were whether the judgement for damages in that proceeding had been settled, and whether the land in controversy was a part of the boundary condemned, and it was competent to show by parol that the claim for damages had been settled.

Second—The money having been paid and the road constructed and operated by defendant's vendor, the fact that the judgement or inquest failed to describe the land will not defeat the defendant's right to the use, it being shown by extrinsic evidence that the land in controversy is the identical land condemned.

MORE SUGGESTIONS IN REGARD TO DIPHTHERIA.

Editor Bulletin: The City Council meets to-night, and the members of that body may depend upon it that the public are relying on them for a wise and strong action in regard to this dread disease. In the suggestions made in the columns of the BULLETIN yesterday there is nothing new or untried. It has been the lot of the writer to pass through a number of dangerous pestilences. One was a scourge of the small-pox in the city of Louisville many years ago. In the midst of the panic created by its sudden appearance and prevalence the city authorities invited a number of its most eminent physicians to meet them in Council—an example which our authorities can well afford to imitate, for we are persuaded we have a number of physicians here whose opinions would be well worth having. Among the physicians invited to the Council was Dr. David Vandell. When asked for his advice it was as follows: First, put down this senseless excitement and panic by officially ascertaining and publishing the exact facts; second, if the pest house will not contain all the patients exclude all visitors from every house where it exists; third, after the patient recovers, effectually disinfect the house before the patient leaves it or the public are allowed to enter.

This advice was taken, and the writer well remembers how immediate and how complete were the results. It was at once seen that there was no such prevalence of the disease as the yellow flags scattered through the city appeared to indicate, and confidence was restored. The farther spread of the disease was arrested, the afflicted soon died or recovered, and the plague disappeared.

To-day in the city of Cincinnati, wherever there is a case of diphtheria, there is a notice placed on the door and the public warned not to enter. And it may calm the public mind in Maysville a little to know that in some parts of that city these notices are so frequent as to impress the mind of the casual beholder with the conviction that the disease is in every other house.

When a year or so ago a single mad dog made his appearance on our streets our city authorities lost no time in resolutely taking the matter in hand. The diphtheria, but little less to be dreaded in its severer form than hydrophobia, has now been lingering around our homes for nearly a year, and we have a right to expect that without farther delay it will be as thoroughly and resolutely exterminated.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Editor Bulletin: Hereby our most grateful thanks are extended to the kind and staunch friends who stood by us during the sickness and final dissolution of our little Louis. The many valuable services rendered were appreciated. May our Heavenly Father in his mercy never visit you with a like affliction is our fervent prayer.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, October 25, 1892, of diphtheria, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fitzgerald, in the West End, Marguerite, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, of Rochester, N. Y., aged three years.
 Who can comfort the fond father and the loving mother in the loss of an only child? The sympathetic voice of earthly friends is grateful in so great a sorrow, but human words can not assuage one's grief in such an hour. Blessed are they who in their sad bereavement put their faith in Him who said: "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." In a bed of roses, flowers she loved so well, little Marguerite was gently laid to rest in "the silent city of the dead." But she has simply gone on before and is like the angels in heaven; she stands upon the borders of the grave to beckon the loved ones up to heaven, where the weary are forever at rest and where partings are no more.

A BIG ONE

Will Be the Closing Meeting of the Campaign Saturday Night.

A Grand Rally of the Single X Democratic Clubs—Fleming and Kimball to Speak.

The Democrats of Mason County will close the campaign with a grand rally at the court house Saturday night.

There are twenty-three single X clubs in the county and they are all invited to turn out and make the meeting one of the biggest ever held in Maysville.

Following is the list of clubs: Tuckahoe, Burr Oak, Plumville, Minerva, Helena, Washington, Dover, Mayslick, Lewisburg, Lawrence Creek, Fern Leaf, Montjoy's, Sardis, Mt. Giload, Germantown, Murphysville, Orangeburg, Woodward's Ridge, Oak Woods, Dietrich's Grove, West Liberty, Charleston Bottom and Maysville.

Every Democrat in the county is urged to take part in this grand wind-up of the campaign. The public cordially invited.

Judge William B. Fleming, of Louisville, President of the Watterson Club, and an able and eloquent speaker, and the Hon. Wm. Preston Kimball, of Lexington, a Blue Grass orator, will be present and discuss the issues of the campaign.

Haucke's band will furnish music for the occasion. Remember the date—Saturday night—and be on hand.

Last night was the regular meeting of the famous Burr Oak Single X Club—the last before the election—and a right royal meeting it was. The speakers and about a dozen other guests, previous to the meeting, assembled at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan, and sat down to a supper which the writer's pen would fail to do justice to.

The delicious country ham, the pig, the oysters, the fried chicken, the superb coffee, the innumerable accessories, the splendid cake, the fruit salads, all prepared in that style of cooking unrivaled outside of Kentucky and served in that manner for which the hostess is justly famous throughout the county, would have tempted the appetite of the most fastidious epicure. From the way the speakers attacked the viands, it was feared by some present it would have a bad effect on their oratory and they might, in stock phrase, become "too full for utterance" and begin to make excuses. But the contrary proved the case.

Assembled at the school house was a fair audience. G. R. Gill led off, followed by John L. Chamberlain, and the ever-ready W. LaRue Thomas made the concluding speech in his inimitable way. The speeches were earnest, instructive, bright and entertaining and judging from the continuous applause pleased the appreciative audience and often aroused them to enthusiasm.

The Burr Oak Club are most earnestly at work, and will give a good account of themselves and their influence for the good of the cause on election day.

Mr. Gill provoked great applause by the following reference to Cleveland: "He gave us an administration as pure and patriotic as that of Washington, as constitutional as that of Jefferson, and as fearless as that of Jackson."

Messrs. W. LaRue Thomas and John L. Chamberlain spoke at West Liberty School House Tuesday night. The house was crowded. A colored string band furnished the music. Messrs. Thomas and Chamberlain were elegantly entertained that night at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathews, and spent the day yesterday in the neighborhood putting in effective work for the ticket.

A magnificent audience greeted Hon. W. C. Owens, of Georgetown, at the court house last night. In appearance and in his manner of speaking Mr. Owens reminds one very much of the matchless Senator Carlisle. He dwelt last night on the tariff question and Force bill, discussing these questions for about an hour. He was frequently applauded, and his audience regretted that his speech was so short.

Judge Phister spoke at Brooksville last night to a crowd that packed the court house. The club on horseback met him a mile from town and escorted him to the hotel. He delivered one of the best speeches of the campaign at that place.

Total Registration.

The supplemental registration closed last night. During the three days eighty-two voters' names were enrolled. This makes the total registration in the city 1,550.

Mr. JAMES DUNN's friends will regret to learn he was taken worse last night, and his condition for awhile was very critical.

MR. CHARLES W. STEWART has bought the interest of his partner J. A. Butler in the firm of Butler & Stewart, cigar manufacturers, at Ashland.

JUDGE TONY has decided in the Jefferson Court of Common Pleas that the International Cigarmakers' Union had a property right in its trade mark, and granted an injunction restraining a non-union firm from using the label.

Don't buy a gold watch until you learn P. J. Murphy's prices. His prices are without question the lowest; quality the best. Every watch regulated before sold. All other goods in his line can be bought of him for less money than elsewhere. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

The "Yeoman of the Guards" will not appear at the opera house next Saturday night. The company had that date here, but the lessees of the house, Messrs. Edmiston & Kinneman, found that the show was not up to their standard and promptly cancelled the engagement.

MR. JOHN BUTLER, fireman on the K. C. passenger train leaving here at 6 a. m., had a couple of teeth extracted at Lexington one day this week. The dentist administered gas and Mr. Butler was brought home that evening unconscious, and was in a rather dangerous condition for some time. He is improving.

That powerful play "The Witch," which has enjoyed a marvelous success all over the country, presented uninterrupted for a period of over two years, is soon to be seen in this city. Marie Hubert Frohman is the star, supported by a company which is said to be even better than that of last year. At Washington Opera House soon.

At the recent annual session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Kentucky, held at Newport, the following officers were elected: G. W. P., R. B. Hewetson, Newport; G. W. A., Mrs. Annie Greenwood, Maysville; G. S., J. R. Seaman, Maysville; Grand Treasurer, G. W. Monaghan, Augusta; Grand Con., Spencer Banks, Newport; Grand Sentinel, Wm. Means, Augusta, Ky.

The relatives of Rev. John Newton Forman in this county have been very anxious lest he and his wife had been passengers of the ill-fated steamer Roumania, which was wrecked on her way from Liverpool to Bombay a few days since, as they were expected to have left the former port for India about the time that the vessel sailed. They now learn that Mr. Forman, with his family, sailed for Bombay on the steamer Alaska, having been so fortunate as to miss the Roumania.

HON. JASON L. BROWN, who spoke at the court house Saturday night, is the Democratic nominee for Congress, for the third time, in the Third Indiana district. He was elected by a majority of 3,076 in 1883 and by 3,939 in 1890. Mr. Brown's friends are sanguine that the old-time majority will be preserved next month, notwithstanding the last Legislature made some changes in the Congressional apportionment by which Jefferson County, with its 722 Republican majority, was taken from the Fourth and added to Brown's district.

DONNELL-RHODES.

A Pretty Home Wedding at Murphysville—J. B. H. Tells of the Nuptials.

The social interest in the opening week of November concentrated in a pretty home wedding. Wednesday was filled with sunshine and orange blossoms, and a lovely bride formed in line for autumn's bridal procession.

Miss Lida Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes, was one of the brightest girls taken from Mason's circle of attractive maidens. Mr. John M. Donnell won her for his life partner, and Carlisle will add another jewel in her coronet of fair women.

The bride is a demi-brunette, with lovely coloring, sparkling dark eyes, set off by a wealth of dark hair. She wore a going-away gown of brown knickerbocker, Persian trimmings, and carried Bride roses.

The groom, Mr. John M. Donnell, was a young bachelor. He has been in the livery business at Carlisle for years, and drives a span of peerless blacks valued at $2,100. He and his prancing roadsters are well known to all fair-goers. His friends predict for him a successful future. In person he is blonde, tall and well proportioned—just as good looking as a man should be, and made a fine contrast to his dark-eyed bride.

The crowning ceremony which made Miss Lida Rhodes Mrs. John M. Donnell was performed by Rev. G. N. Jolly, of the M. E. Church. The many choice presents of which the bride was the recipient attested the warm esteem in which she was held by a large circle of friends. The newly wedded couple left amid the hearty bon voyage of their friends for a trip to New Orleans.

The gentlemanly ushers, prominent citizens of Carlisle, were Messrs. Wall and Sam Howe. Miss Nannie D. Gault played Lohengrin's wedding march for the entrance and Mendelssohn for the departure of the bridal party, and during the ceremony "Call Me Thine Own" and "I Love But Thee" were sweetly rendered. Miss Lelah and Bessie Martin represented Maysville, and all the adjoining villages were represented by the handsomest girls and fine looking men. It was a goodly gathering. Squire Tilton and wife, W. S. Potts, Charles Donnell, W. F. Dudley and Charles Ross were present from Carlisle.

Stable Burned.

A stable in the rear of Pearce Bros' Milling Company's bran shed on Second street, Fifth ward, was destroyed by fire at 5:30 o'clock this morning. One end of the bran shed was damaged considerably, the entire loss amounting to a few hundred dollars. It is thought the fire was the work of an incendiary. The watchman at the Limestone Mill, Mr. George Johnson, was in the stable feeding a pair of mules about ten minutes before the alarm and found nothing wrong. The fire started in some hay on the second floor of the stable.

ALFRED DOYLE, of Sherburne, has been granted a pension of $10 per month from August 14, 1891. Mr. John Walsh, of this city, was his attorney.

MR. A. R. PIERCE's meat store was entered by a thief last night, and the cash drawer broken open. A dime saving-bank containing about two dollars was the only thing taken. Entrance was effected by cutting through the screen door. The store was entered one morning about two weeks ago by a sneak thief who got about four dollars out of the cash drawer.

It is very important that all sportsmen should know just where to find a large stock of the best brands of breech-loading guns, and every description of ammunition before the opening of the hunting season. The game law will soon be up. A very large stock of guns and everything pertaining to hunting will be found at Frank Owens Hardware Co.'s, and sold very, very cheap. Call and see before purchasing.

The man who was found dead at Lexington a few days ago turns out to be Jake Downing, a farmer, and not Richard Aubrey. The indications are that he was murdered for the paltry sum of $6.50 which he had on his person when he left town, and of which he was robbed. Articles of clothing belonging to him were found in a lonely place near where the dead man was discovered. A man residing near the spot saw and knew Downing and noticed a burly colored man following him, but thought nothing of the occurrence until he heard of the tragedy. An autopsy discloses wounds that could not have been caused by a fall. Downing was drunk when he left town and it is believed became an easy prey to the murderer.

A Noted Sculptress.

The Chicago Evening Post recently gave an interesting sketch of Miss Louise Lawson, who has attained a National reputation as a sculptress. Her father was Professor Lawson, Dean for many years of the Ohio Medical College. She is a sister of the first wife of the late H. Porter McIlvaine, of this city. Some of her work will be exhibited at the World's Fair. Statues of the Rhodian Boy and of the late S. S. Cox are her best known pieces.

EXPERT FORGER ARRESTED.

He Has Successfully Swindled in Every State in the Union.

NEW YORK, N. Y. 3.—Charles A. Howe, an expert forger, who has traveled from one end of the country to the other and proudly boasts that he had swindled banks and merchants in every state in the Union, was arrested yesterday afternoon and is locked up at police headquarters.

Howe has made a full confession of his crimes. He said he began life a real estate agent in Gray's Harbor, Wash., but lost the money he made over the gaming table. His first forgery was of the Denver Lithographic company to pay for 1,000 blank drafts on the Bank of Elmer. With these he traveled, passing them everywhere until they gave out, when he secured a new supply from the Union Bank Note company, of Kansas City, these on the First National bank, of Park City, U. T. He has swindled banks all over the country. He said he was on his way to Nicaragua when arrested. His wife is in Yonkers N. Y., and does not know he is a criminal.

STARVED TO DEATH.

Inhuman Treatment Received by a New Jersey Mother.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Charles Wyble died near Midvale, Upper Passaic county, yesterday. It is believed that she is the victim of starvation and unnatural treatment by her husband, whom she married but a short time ago. The husband kept her in a hovel, compelled her to sleep on bare boards during her confinement, while he took their feather mattress for himself.

Yesterday neighbors heard the groans and discovered that the unfortunate woman was dying. She was removed to the home of her mother when she, for the first time made known her sufferings. She said that she had lived on crusts of bread for the past month, and that three nights ago her husband returned, after several days absence, and beat her in a terrible manner. The authorities will investigate the matter.

Trains Come Together.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 3.—At 1 o'clock yesterday morning an eastbound freight train on the Fort Wayne was run into at the Washington street crossing, Allegheny, by the Keystone express train, also going east. Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kinchloe,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
